

Memory Studies Summer School

10-15 August 2021

organised by

London Centre for Interdisciplinary Research

Programme

Day 1: Tuesday, 10 August

12:00-12:15 Opening Remarks

12:15-13:30 Protection of Substance, Presentation of Tradition, and Preservation of Memory at Cultural Heritage Sites via New and Digital Media lecture and discussion with Dr Konrad Gunesch

14:00-16:00 The Longest Revolution: Feminist Art and the Deep Time of Patriarchal Memory lecture and discussion with Dr Kimberly Lamm

Day 2: Wednesday, 11 August

11:00-12:30 Doris Lessing: The Summer Before the Dark and the Disharmony of Existence lecture and discussion with Dr Miriam Sette

14:00-15:30 Memory and Trauma in Contemporary Popular Fiction: The Controversy of the 'Pacto del Olvido' (a Pact of Forgetting) lecture and discussion with Dr Ingrida Eglė Žindžiuvienė

Day 3: Thursday, 12 August

11:00-12:30 Historic Presences: How History Becomes (The) Novel lecture and discussion with Dr Omar Sabbagh

12:30-13:00 MSSS participants' presentations and discussion

14:00-16:00 "Acts of Telling": Memory in the Fiction of Graham Swift lecture and discussion with Prof. Anastasia Logotheti

Day 4: Friday, 13 August

11:00-11:30 Bishopsgate Institute collections/archives and memory with Dr Michelle Johansen

11:30-12:30 Archives Virtual Tour with Stef Dickers (East End collections)

12:45-14:30 Mapping East London's Social History workshop with Dr Michelle Johansen

15:00-15:30 MSSS participants' presentations and discussion

Day 5: Saturday, 14 August

11:00-16:00 The Uncanny in Language, Literature and Culture International Conference

Day 6: Sunday, 15 August

14:00-17:00 Cinematic Representations of Memory: A Psychoanalytic Investigation short course with Mary Wild